

HOLIDAY HOUSE

LITTLEFAIR

LONDON

elebrating its 10th Anniversary by coming to London for the first time in November 2017, Holiday House London has seen some of the UK's most celebrated interior designers join forces to design two West London

London townhouses to raise money for The Breast Cancer Research Foundation to support UK research projects.

It was a pleasure to walk round and appreciate some of London's most talented interior designers present their own style, passion and interpretation of the 'Holiday House'.

Spectacular displays of creativity and passion spark throughout the house, from the teenage bedroom of your dreams by Studio Suss to 'The Artisan Collection' by Iggi Interior Design which featured provocative art work and an irresistible pink feathered wall.

ittlefair London had the rare opportunity to support this exhibition by donating accessories to the Taylor Howes Living set and furniture to the bedroom retreat by Laura Hammett.

This 'Aegean Luxury Retreat' instantly transports you to the Mediterranean Coast, as you take a breath of the fresh sea air, aka Mare minerale by Culti Milano. The elegant bedroom set features a draping bed canopy, hand-painted joinery by Fromental, delicate ceramic wall sculptures and not to mention our very own Warwick bedside tables.

We couldn't help but admire the sophisticated formal reception by Taylor Howes aptly named 'Home Couture - The Best of the Best'. The talented design team have skilfully combined a space for both entertaining and relaxing in the style of a traditional London townhouse, with a preview of their new Taylor Howes Collection of furniture pieces - launching next year. It was a pleasure to see the curation of accessories from our newest collection dress the room so elegantly.

Holiday House is open from November 9th – December 10th. Tickets cost £20 and can be purchased online at holidayhouselondon.com
